1ST MT COLAH/MT KURING-GAI SCOUTS CHERISH RARE OPPORTUNITY

Eloise receives her
Grey Wolf Award from
Micheal Baden-Powell

On Monday 26th November 2018, 1st Mt Colah/Mt Kuring-gai Scout Group was visited by Scouting royalty, the Honourable Michael Baden-Powell (Grandson of Scouting founder Lord Baden-Powell), his wife Mrs Joan Baden-Powell and Chief Commissioner of Scouts NSW Neville Tomkins OAM.

The night was made special for two fortunate Cubs, Matthew and Eloise who were presented their Grey Wolf awards, the highest award in the Cub section by the Honourable Baden-Powell.

After the formalities Michael sat with the group and then gave some personal insight into his life of Scouting adventures. Attendees heard an inspirational talk on scouting and how the lessons he learnt as a boy in Scouting gave him the confidence and determination to achieve his goals throughout his adult life. He also spoke of his amazement at seeing his grandfather's legacy thriving in 2018. The Chief Commissioner Neville Tomkins shared some further words of inspiration with the Cubs, Scouts and Venturers.

The night was finished off with the Rover Crew cooking a BBQ and The Honourable Baden-Powell and his wife, Mr Tomkins, District Scout Leaders Mary Page and Peter (Noddy) Quirke sharing a light supper and exchanging more stories with the group. A great night was had by all. Michael was even seen signing autographs.

LET'S TALK ABOUT THE WEATHER ...

BOM'S SUMMER OUTLOOK PREDICTS HOTTER THAN NORMAL SUMMER

Most of Australia is likely to see a hotter than normal summer period, according to the Bureau of Meteorology's 2018-19 Summer Outlook released last week.

The Bureau's manager of long-range forecasting Dr Andrew Watkins said the outlook showed most of the country had an 80 per cent chance of exceeding normal temperatures over the next three months.

"We've already seen extremely hot temperatures through parts of north and central Queensland in recent days and this should act as an important reminder of the kinds of conditions we can get during an Australian summer. In terms of rainfall for NSW there is no strong push indicating wetter or drier than average conditions."

"Having said that, locally heavy rainfall events similar to what we have seen in NSW last week are always a possibility during summer, no matter what the outlook is showing."

The Bureau's ENSO outlook remains at El Niño alert, meaning the chance of an El Niño forming in 2018 is 70 per cent, roughly triple the normal risk. An El Niño typically brings drier and warmer conditions to eastern Australia but the rainfall effects tend to be less pronounced in the south during summer months.

The Bureau's spring summaries will be released on Monday, 3 December but preliminary figures show it's likely to be one of the 10 warmest springs on record for the country as a whole.

CHRISTMAS CAROLS AT ASQUITH OVAL

The Carols at Asquith continues its sparkling tradition again this year.

On Sunday 9th December, this year's Carols kicks off with food and face-painting, jumping castles and colouring comp fun for the kids starting at 5:30pm. Performances from community groups will be presented both as pre-carols entertainment and during the carols proper, which commences at 7:30. Donations will be taken on the night to help support the Hornsby Ku-ring-gai Women's Shelter and various local clubs and groups.

Carols singing is interspersed throughout a program which highlights the central theme of Christmas, the story of Jesus Christ's birth in Bethlehem two millennia ago. The nativity will be enacted on stage by local children between musical and dance items.

A special feature of the night will be puppetry by Quiz Works. Around 9pm the night sky will light up with the Grand Finale fireworks display.

This great family night is proudly hosted by Asquith Church of Christ, St. John's Anglican Church and Australia Ling Liang Church, with participation from Sydney Manna Church and HiPraise, all in Asquith.

NSW'S LONGEST SERVING JUSTICES OF THE PEACE HONoured

Clement Scheef of Berowra Heights and Barry Lumby of Dural were congratulated last week by Member for Hornsby Matt Kean MP for their 50 years of service to the community as a Justices of the Peace.

"Clement and Barry are both some of the longest-serving JPs in the state, who have donated countless hours to helping local people," Mr Kean said. "Just about everyone needs a JP at some point in their life and I know they have both been happy to lend a hand."

Tracking down a JP is also about to become a whole lot easier thanks to an online register. The new-look register will begin operating in early 2019.

JPs act as independent and objective witnesses to documents people need for a variety of purposes. Their main functions are to witness affidavits and statutory declarations, and they may also certify copies of original documents. JPs provide their services on a voluntary basis.

There are over 95,000 JPs covering all corners of the state.

For more information on JPs or to find one in your area go to www.jp.nsw.gov.au

The difference between selling and celebrating.

"Francesca and her team supported me through the entire process of selling my home of 16 years. Francesca believed in my home and was enthusiastic and passionate about all it had to offer - it wasn't just a house to sell, it was my home. Francesca understands this area and its residents, and it is this strong relationship with the community that makes her role as an agent so personal and important in Berowra."
